A Century of Caring: Honoring the Past, Building the Future

As we celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the United Way of St. Clair County, we reflect on the incredible impact this organization has had on our community. For a century, the United Way has been a beacon of hope, delivering essential services and support to those who need it most.

Your donation to United Way helps ensure that this legacy of care and compassion continues for generations to come. Let's make this milestone year our best yet by reaching our fundraising goal so we can continue providing the vital services our community depends on. Together, we can make a real difference and build a brighter future for everyone!
